

«Freiland e.V.»

Freiland e.V.
Friedrich-Engels-Str. 22
14473 Potsdam, Germany

Once upon a time...

- Freiland is a self-managed cultural center. Mostly left alternative people visit this place. It was established in May 2011. On an area of about 12.000m² many different projects and events take place (e.g. youth club, ateliers, bar, sport groups, project for teaching science subjects, offices of political organisations).
- "Freiland" started to build up an own gardening group.

Objectives

- The main aim of this group is to bring more green areas into the city.
- They want to create green places for everyone without regulations

Values

- Gardening for everybody

Activities & Events

- Group meetings
- Parties

Ideas for tomorrow

- Establishment of beds

Partners of the garden

- Projekthaus Potsdam
- Wissenschaftsladen
- Other organisations located on the area

Structure of the garden

- Surface: 12.000m² (cultural center)
- Organisation of plots: gardening group

Management

- A head organisation with a weekly meeting where each group participate.
- The garden group is creating the garden.
- Self-organised, left alternative project

What do we grow & for whom?

- flowers
- vegetables
- fruits
- for individual use
- for the group

Our good ideas & practices

- raised beds
- collective beds

Practical information

- It is situated near a bus station.
- Access: open for everybody
- Opening hours: starting from noon

Contact

www.freiland-potsdam.de info@freiland-potsdam.de

Name of the managing organisation

CULTUS UG

Birth of the garden

May 2011

Users of the garden

Visitors,
Neighbours